Canada Pump and Power Completed The ADCI Audit!

Canada Pump and Power (CPP) has successfully completed our Association of Diving Contractors International (ADCI) audit and is in the midst of receiving our certification. The ADCI represents the commercial diving industry around the world and is built upon a foundation of establishing industry-wide safety standards for commercial diving. This will add to CPP's already impressive line of certifications and accreditation's including: ISO 9001:2015, DCBC (Divers Certification Board of Canada), ISNetworld, Avetta, ComplyWorks, COR (Certificate of Recognition), CSA (Canadian Standards Association), CADC (Canadian Association of Diving Contractors) and APEGA (Association of Professional Engineers and Geoscientists of Alberta).

As a certified ADCI member, CPP will utilize equipment that conforms to the ADCI requirements and specifications. CPP will continue to comply with all safety standards required as safety remains our top priority.

Canada Pump and Power brings years of successful commercial diving and underwater operations experience to complete your upcoming commercial diving project. From intake cleaning, to underwater welding and equipment salvation, we are able to provide the best and easiest solution for all of your commercial dive work needs.
